

The start of operation of JSSB, the steel service center for automotive industry in Mexico

JFE Shoji Steel Service Center Bajio (President: Naoya Takahashi, hereinafter called as JSSB) , one of the group companies of JFE Shoji Corporation (President: Toshinori Kobayashi) has officially started the operation of the plant located in Silao, Guanajato, Mexico to supply its products to the automotive industry in Mexico which is going to expand as a production base for vehicles destined for the United States

JSSB has the capability of processing ultra-high strength steel and exposed steel panels for automobiles and will collaborate with NUCOR-JFE STEEL MEXICO, a joint venture between JFE Steel Corporation and NUCOR CORPORATION for manufacturing steel products for automotive industry located adjacent to JSSB, to add value to NJSM products with steel processing.

JFE Shoji will fully utilize the expertise accumulated through the operation of steel service centers in Japan, China, Thailand and Indonesia in collaboration with JFE Steel's manufacturing plants for steel products for automobiles and will respond to the customers' requirements through stable supply and the provision of various services, with the greatest attention paid to safety and quality.

【Outline of JSSB】

- ① Company Name : JFE Shoji Steel Service Center Bajio, S.A.P.I. de C.V.
- ② Establishment : April 2019
- ③ Form of business : Processing and sales of steel products
- ④ Facility : Big slitter machine capable of processing ultra-high strength steel
(Thickness range: 0.4~3.6mm, Max. width: 1,880mm, TS max.: 1,470Mpa)

■Contact

JFE Shoji Corporation
Public Relations Sec., Corporate Planning Dept.
TEL: +81-03-5203-5055